ORDER

Before the Court is the status of this case. Pretrial and scheduling matters in this case have been referred to the undersigned pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b). (See Docket Entry 5.)

On August 30, 2024, the undersigned held an Initial Pretrial Conference (“IPC”) at which a non-attorney representative of the Defendant appeared. The Court explained that corporations and limited liability companies cannot proceed in federal court without representation by counsel. See Donovan v. Rd. Rangers Country Junction, Inc., 736 f2d 1004, 1005 (5th Cir. 1984). Accordingly, The IPC was reset to October 23, 2024, to allow Defendant time to hire the needed representation.

However, on the morning of October 23, 2024, Plaintiff’s attorney notified chambers of her inability to appear due to an unforeseen and urgent medical issue. And on that same date, counsel for Plaintiff moved to withdraw. (Docket Entry 16.) Counsel indicated that she believed it appropriate to withdraw immediately, would she stated that she provide additional information under seal if necessary to support her motion to withdraw. (Id. at 2 & nn. 1–2.)

Given the circumstances set out above, the Court finds good cause to continue the IPC. The Court will set a deadline for Plaintiff's counsel to offer additional information under seal, as well as a deadline for the parties to designate counsel to represent them henceforth.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

- 1) The IPC in this case is RESET to December 12, 2024, at 3:30 P.M. The IPC will be held by video teleconference using the Zoom video platform. On the designated date and time of the conference, the parties are directed to join the ZOOMGOV meeting, at the following address:

- 2) Counsel for Plaintiff must offer additional information to supplement her motion to withdraw (Docket Entry 16) on or before November 12, 2024. The supplement must indicate whether Plaintiff opposes the motion to withdraw. If Plaintiff does not oppose the motion, new counsel for Plaintiff must enter an appearance on or before November 22, 2024.
- 3) Counsel for Defendant must likewise enter an appearance on or before November 22, 2024.
- 4) The U.S. Clerk is directed to send a copy of this Order by U.S. Certified Mail to the parties at following addresses (see Docket Entries 6, 7, and 16):
